

THE LYVER TROPHY RACE

FRIDAY 3rd JULY 2009

We are pleased to announce the event will be sponsored by predictwind.com

Providers of accurate marine forecasts for cruising and racing.

" Alinghi has used the same weather modelling technology as PredictWind offers, and it played an important role in winning the 2003/2007 America's Cup in both Auckland and Valencia."

PredictWind Will:

- Make forecasts available for all competitors for build up and duration of the Race.

- Provide instructions and promo code to all competitors to access forecasts.

- Provide Standard 1 year Subscription as prizes to the first place winner in each of the three classes. (presented as a certificate)
